South-Carolina GAZETTE

[Number 988.]

GENOA, December 19.

THE marquis de Curſay, commander of the French troops in Corſica, being arreſted, by order of his maſter, is conducted to the caſtle of Antibes; and M. de Courecy, colonel of the regiment of Tournaiſis, is appointed commander in his room; this is the more pleaſing to our government, as there is a good underſtanding between their new commander, and the marq. de Grimaldi, our commiſſary general in that Iſland.

Curſay is ſaid to be the victim of the malecontents in Corſica, who ſettled with him a regulation to be ſent to the court of France, where after it had been approved, they rejected it with contempt.

Conſtantinople, Dec. 3. More changes and removals have happened at court: The captain Baſhaw, who was cruizing with a ſquadron in the Archipelago, has received notice that the Grand Signor baniſhes him to Lepanto, and gives his poſt to Mahomet baſhaw, who was director of the yards and docks; the Kiaia, or firſt ſecretary to the grand Vizir, has likewiſe been diſcarded, and ſent in exile to Adrianople; and his place is conferred on Bekir effendi, ſon-in-law of Muſtapha effendi, formerly embaſſador from the Porte to the court of Vienna.

Madrid, Dec. 25. Purſuant to the plan of the Marquis de la Mina, all the fortified places in Catalonia are going directly to be put in a good condition. There is to be a fort built at Figheres, upon the frontiers of Rouſſillon, capable of receiving a garriſon of 8000 men. His Catholick majeſty has aſſigned the ſums neceſſary for carrying theſe projects into execution. The court has ſent orders to Carthagena, to ſupply with a numerous artillery all the new works of that port, which is now one of the fineſt in all Europe.

Vienna, Dec. 30 'Tis ſaid, the Imperial troops in quarters in the Auſtrian Low Countries will ſoon form a camp in the neighbourhood of Frankfort; and that they are to be replaced by others, who have already received orders to hold themſelves in readineſs for a march.

Moſcow, Dec. 31. It is reported that a body of forty or fifty thouſand men, will ſoon be ordered to move

Wippinfurth, Jan. 7. The elector of Cologne has been ſome time raiſing men with the greateſt diligence in his [illegible] in Weſtphalia, making uſe ſometimes even of force. [illegible] leſs to conceive what are his motives [illegible] as we cannot conceive againſt which [illegible] by his troops. He does not, ſurely, intend to force [illegible] Cologne to [illegible]

[illegible] remain full on the ſame footing; yet as they retain [illegible] of juriſdiction, they cannot authorize ſuch violences

Berlin, Jan. 2. All our regiments are ordered to be complete before the firſt of April next, and the officers are charged to provide them with tents and other neceſſaries for a campaign.

Vienna, Jan. 6. According to ſome advices from the frontiers of Turkey, ſeveral preparations were making in that empire, which ſeemed to indicate, that the Porte would openly intereſt itſelf in the affairs of Perſia Duſſeldorp, Jan. 9. The elector Palatine has given orders for completing all the regiments in his ſervice without delay. Some hundreds of recruits are already arrived from the Upper Rhine; and the officers are gone back to beat up for more.

Madrid, Jan. 2. Beſides the repairs and augmentations which have been made to ſeveral fortified places of this kingdom, it has been reſolved to build five forts upon the mount of Montjou, the better to fortify Barcelona.

Paris, Jan. 19. The court has ſent an expreſs to the commiſſaries of the marine at the Weſtern-Ports, with orders to work day and night, in order to fit out ten ſhips of the line, five of which are of 80 guns, one of 70, and four of 60: Theſe ſhips are to be ready to put to ſea the latter end of this month, and are to have a great number of troops on board, together with great ſupplies of proviſions and ſtores; and it is thought they are to be ſent to our American colonies.

Hanover, Jan. 2. We have juſt received orders from [illegible] to complete the troops in this electorate with all poſſible expedition; to put the towns and fortreſſes on the frontiers in a ſtate of defence; to fill the magazines with the utmoſt diſpatch; and to provide for the ſecurity of this country in the moſt effectual manner.

Stockholm, Dec. 13. Some advices from Commerce in [illegible] ſay, that the ſhips are appointed [illegible] ſeaſons in that country of new [illegible] ſhips which are [illegible] prodigiouſly, the rather becauſe theſe [illegible] advices do by exactly what thoſe which we have received from Stockholm and Paris.

Paris, Jan. 13. Our correſpondent at Frankfort aſſures us, that a greater number of couriers are daily paſſing and repaſſing than were ever ſeen during a time of peace; that though this occaſions many enquiries, yet hitherto no probable cauſe has been aſſigned; any more than for ſome time becoming very current, as if a numerous army would be aſſembled in the neighbourhood pretty early in the ſpring.

Madrid, Jan. 23. A liſt is handed about, of the regiments that are to form the encampment at Spaniſh [illegible] amounting to forty thouſand men. The ground has been viewed by the [illegible] majeſty.

the author undertakes to explain all the phænomena of luminous bodies, the three points of the load ſtone, and the cauſe of electricity, from a ſingle principle, viz. the ſolar effluvia.

Dec. 25. It is ſaid the government has taken into conſideration the actual ſtate of the naval forces of France and Spain, and the pains daily taken by thoſe powers to augment their marine; and in conſequence of which, ſome maritime orders and diſpoſitions will ſoon appear.

Jan. 9. They write from Peterſburg, that in a late conference betwern Count Beſtucheff, and the foreign miniſters, he recommended to them warmly to repreſent to their reſpective maſters the expediency of being upon their guard, and in a condition to comply immediately with the obligations they are under from treaties, ſince a variety of circumſtances render it highly probable that ſome ambitious projects, more than once diſconcerted by accident, are piecing together again and framing in order, as ſoon as an opportunity ſhall ſerve, to put them in execution.

Jan. 16 The king of Spain having lately remitted two millions of piaſters in ſpecie to Naples, on account of the trade he carries on, and a very large quantity of goods having been embark'd at Cadiz for America, on the king's account, the Spaniſh bankers and merchants took occaſion to repreſent to the miniſtry, how detrimental the king's trading is to the kingdom, by deſtroying the freedom of commerce, and ſtopping the circulation of money, the price of ſilver being very high, although upwards of an hundred million of piaſters have been brought into Spain from America ſince the peace. To this the miniſtry replied, that his majeſty had recourſe to trade, as the leaſt burtheſome method of ſupplying the deficiencies of his revenues, and to enable him to pay the heavy load of debt contracted in the late reign.

Jan. 18 Tueſday the hon. Edward Cornwallis, Eſq; went from his houſe in Old Broad-ſtreet attended by a cavalcade of near 100 coaches to the place of election in Covent-Garden, where he was unanimouſly elected member in the room of Sir Peter Warren deceaſed. And yeſterday he took his ſeat in the houſe of commons.

According to advices from Madrid, the port of Carthagena will in a little time be one of the fineſt in Europe, and capable of containing a powerful fleet; ſo that if the cheſt of Gibraltar be to prevent the junction of the Breſt and Toulon [illegible] a garriſon of 8000 men. The count de St. Marſan, miniſter from the king of Sardinia, has received an expreſs from Turin, with diſpatches relative to the negotiation begun at his Sardinian majeſty's court about the reverſion of the dominions of the infant duke of Parma: Count Migazzi, the imperial miniſter plenipotentiary, has lately had a conference with the Spaniſh miniſtry, about the conditions propoſed to the imperial and Sardinian courts, in order to make them deſiſt from the right which the treaty of Aix la Chapelle gives them to that reverſion. A new plan for terminating this affair has made its appearance in public: It contains 12 articles, of which the principal regard the indemnification to be allowed of thoſe two courts, eſpecially that of Sardinia; but as the authenticity of this plan is called in queſtion, they don't deſire to particulars: however they tell us enough to ſhew, that the peace of Italy is but precarious, after all the bungling theſe four years paſt to ſecure it.

Jan. 20. They write from Peterſburg, that the day is not yet fixed for the departure of the court of Moſcow, that Count Beſtucheff has lately had ſeveral long conferences with the miniſters of the maritime powers, and that a rumour prevails as if new troubles were apprehended in a certain country, the tranquility of which has been the great object of many and long negotiations.

It is ſaid that ſome of the men of war lately put into commiſſion are deſigned for the Baltick

On tueſday a meſſenger was diſpatched from the ſecretary's office to the court of Berlin, on affairs of great importance

We are well aſſured that 10000 ſeamen will be granted for the ſervice of the navy the enſuing year, being 2000 more [illegible] than [illegible] five [illegible] thouſand one hundred [illegible] ſeamen [illegible] the maritime force of Great Britain.

We learn from Harwich, that when the Marquis de Curſay was arreſted he behaved with great firmneſs and moderation, contenting himſelf with ſaying, "that thoſe who had brought this misfortune upon him would be the firſt to repent it; and that when he quitted Corſica he [illegible] would have the beſt friend he had in it.

Laſt ſunday when the ſtate of the navy was laid before the lords of the admiralty, it appeared that there were on the ſtocks at Deptford, two ſhips of [illegible] guns, one of 20, beſides two of 50, as alſo a ſloop repairing. At Woolwich one of 112 guns, two of 80, and two of 60, beſides one of 70, and one of 60, and two ſloops repairing. At Chatham one of 80, three of 70, and one of 60, beſides one of 40, and two of 20 repairing. At Portſmouth one of [illegible] military diſpoſitions lately [illegible] probable that a demand [illegible] ties which her imperial [illegible] a certain neighbouring [illegible] ſhould be violated; and that [illegible] to march.

Letters from Holland, mention the Pruſſian miniſter's preſenting a memorial, the Fr[illegible] ambaſſador's making a journey to Amſterdam, and that the laſt ordered reduction among their troops is for the preſent ſuſpended.

We hear that in caſe the electorate of Hanover ſhould be attacked, that it will be aſſiſted by the princes of Saxe-Gotha and Heſſe, which when joined with their forces, will compoſe an army of 50,000 choice troops.

Jan. 25 We hear that ſeventeen men of war are ordered to be got ready with all expedition.

This week the gentleman who aſſumed the title ſome years ago of Theodore king of Corſica, and has been long ſince confin'd in the rules of the king's bench, had a rule granted him to go out at times to do his buſineſs.

Jan. 27. The lords of the admiralty have ordered the Berwick man of war, of 90 guns, Capt. Cauſeld, the Invincible of 70 guns, Capt. Pett, the Monarch of 70, Capt. Martin, the Kent of 60, Capt. Rodney, the Tyger of 60, Capt. Marſhall, to be manned and victualled with all expedition.

Their lordſhips have likewiſe ordered the Yarmouth at Chatham, of 70 guns, Capt. Breen, and the Cumberland of 70 guns, Capt. Andrews, to be victualled for ſea.

And likewiſe to appoint the Mars of 50 guns, Capt. Amhurſt, now at Plymouth, to be victualled for Channel ſervice.

The lords of the admiralty have ordered [illegible] ſhips, and a ſloop now at Deptford, to be [illegible]

Our advices from [illegible] are [illegible] were, though they ſtill continue to aſſure us, that certain courts recruit with an unuſual degree of ardour, and at a very advanced expence

On monday an expreſs arrived at the admiralty office, which brought an account of the death of William Chambers, Eſq; a rear admiral of the red.

Jan. 29. It is ſaid that his royal highneſs the duke of Cumberland will [illegible] were not at all agreeable to [illegible] [illegible] authority, to manage all things by gentle means [illegible] policy, and no doubt ſome overſight of [illegible] has been guilty, induced the French to yield [illegible] ſolicitations of the Genoeſe, who have long been [illegible] his ruin. He may recover himſelf from his [illegible] his enemies be gainers by it [illegible] determined to preſerve the Genoeſe very [illegible] be aſſiſted in compelling them by force to ſubmit to the [illegible] But they may probably be received [illegible] part from her ſyſtem. PETER SANDERS.

Who has a house to let on Trott's Point, with a chair house and stable, to be entered on the first of June 1753.

WHEREAS John Cuming, of St. Thomas's parish, on his claiming the benefit of the late acts, made for the relief of insolvent Debtors, hath, in pursuance of an order of the Court of Common Pleas, (on his being admitted to the same) to wit, on the 12th of August last, assigned over all his real and personal estate to the subscriber, for the benefit of all such of his creditors, who will agree to come in, and accept of their respective dividends of his said estate, by the time limited by the said acts for that purpose.

THESE are therefore to give notice, to all persons who may be inclinable to purchase, that 3 distinct tracts of land, lately belonging to the said John Cuming, to wit, one of 270 acres or thereabouts, whereon the said Cuming now lives: Another tract of 120 acres, joining the former. Also one other tract of 100 acres, joining Mr. Thomas Durington, will be exposed to sale, to the highest bidder, for ready money, on Thursday the 7th of June next, at the house of Mr. Peter Miller, in the said parish, in order to enable me to discharge the costs of suit, prison fees, and other debts, owing by the said John Cuming: He therefore desires all the creditors of the said John Cuming, who are willing to come in, and endeavour to receive their respective dividends out of his estate, to send in their lawful demands, proved upon oath, before the [illegible] of August next ensuing the date hereof, at the house aforesaid, otherwise they will be excluded from any dividend that may arise out of the estate of the said John Cuming, so assign'd over.

BENJAMIN SIMONS.

WHEREAS Benjamin Simons, of the province of South-Carolina, and parish of St. Thomas and St. Dennis, has published an advertisement, for the sale of three several tracts of land, lately belonging to John Cuming, to pay prison fees, court charges, &c. the said advertisement dated April 27th, 1753, the said sale advertised to be the 7th of June ensuing: And whereas the said John Cuming, on the 15th day of June 1747, by deed of gift, did give, grant, convey and confirm, to his son Benjamin Cuming, &c. all his estate real and personal, without any reservation to himself; the said deed being legally and lawfully done, without fraud, wrong, or prejudice to any person. These are therefore to give notice, that no person or persons whatsoever, on their peril, do either sell, or buy any part of the said land, and I hereby prohibit the said sale.

JOHN CUMING.

TO BE SOLD at public vendue, at the usual place in Charles-Town, on Tuesday the [illegible] day of June, 1753, two three story brick houses, pleasantly situated on the Bay of Charles-Town, between Mr. Price's and Queen-street: Also, a lot in Union-street, 82 and an half front, and 120 feet deep, with a brick [illegible], two fire places, and an oven: Also one [illegible] containing 800 acres of land, very good for cattle or planting, very well known by the name of Hendrick's Island: Also 500 acres of land, opposite to the said island, on the main, with a small house and brick chimney, very well fenced in, with ten acres of land now planted, in corn and potatoes, the land is as good as any in those quarters, for rice and indico, pleasantly situated on a creek and fronting the sea. Credit will be given for six months, paying interest and giving such security as shall be approved of. Any person inclinable to purchase either of the above mentioned houses or lands, before the day of sale, may treat with me any house on the Bay of Charles Town.
